Criteria

Nominees should meet one or more of the following:

- The nominee should have demonstrable distinguished achievement in an activity related to the University's missions of research and scholarship, education, or service.

- Ideally, there should be a particular reason for recognition of the nominee by the University of Michigan, such as an association with the University or a relationship of his or her achievement to work that is unique or highly characteristic of Michigan.

- The honorary degree should have a special meaning to the individual being recognized.

For information regarding eligibility, visit http://www.umich.edu/pres/committees/honorary.php

The University's Honorary Degree Committee meets twice a year, ordinarily in November and April. Nominations to be considered at the November meeting should be submitted no later than the last working day in September. Nominations to be considered at the April meeting should be submitted no later than the last working day in February.

Questions can be directed to HDnominations@umich.edu or by calling (734) 764-4405.
